This information is provided by Nassau solely for educational purposes. It is not meant to provide financial or investment advice tailored to you in any way and you are encouraged to consult a financial advisor for guidance. Do not rely on information in this communication to make financial decisions. Nassau does not provide individual tax, financial or investment advice or act as a fiduciary in the sale or service of insurance contracts.

Product features, rider options, and availability may vary by state. Annuities are long-term insurance contracts and are not suitable to meet short-term financial goals. Early withdrawals may be subject to surrender charges and a market value adjustment. Withdrawals are subject to ordinary income tax, and if taken prior to age 59½, a 10% IRS penalty may also apply. Guarantees are based on the claims-paying ability of the issuing company. See Product Disclosures for details.

Nassau fixed and fixed indexed annuities (18IFDAP, 18FADTCP, ICC18IFDAP/ICC18FADTCP, 19FIA, 19FIA3 et al.) are issued by Nassau Life and Annuity Company (Hartford, CT), except in New York where fixed annuities (I7IMGA) are issued by Nassau Life Insurance Company (East Greenbush, NY). In California, Nassau Life and Annuity Company does business as “Nassau Life and Annuity Insurance Company.” Nassau Life and Annuity Company is not authorized to conduct business in ME and NY, but that is subject to change. Nassau Life and Annuity Company and Nassau Life Insurance Company are subsidiaries of Nassau Financial Group. The insurers are separate entities and each is responsible only for its own financial condition and contractual obligations.
